

ASHOKA + GEORGETOWN LAW

LEGAL CASE STUDY PRESENTATIONS

USING THE LAW AS A POWERFUL TOOL FOR SOCIAL IMPACT

ASHOKA: INNOVATORS FOR THE PUBLIC and GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER would like to invite you to listen as current Georgetown law students from the Law & Social Entrepreneurship practicum discuss real-world legal issues that social entrepreneurs around the world are confronting as they fulfill their social mission.

Examples of the following cases and issues will be addressed:

SunFunder, Inc., a social enterprise that provides solar power to developing countries.

The Yansa Group, a social enterprise that partners with communities to facilitate the development of renewable wind energy from their collective community assets.

Crowdfunding

Securities Regulation

Joining an Accelerator

Anchoring Social Missions with Legal Tools

U.K. Community Interest Corporations

Avoiding Mission Drift Through Corporate Governance

Engaging Communities and Mobilizing Community Assets

Ashoka Global Headquarters

1700 N. Moore St.
Arlington, VA 22209
19th Floor
Conference Room

Thursday,
May 9, 2013

12:00-1:00PM
(EST)

A live feed of the presentation will also be available via Google+ Hangout for guests outside of the Washington, DC area.

The link to the Hangout will be made available on the day of the presentation.

With special thanks to the pro bono attorneys at Orrick and Linklaters.